

thinking through things

wellcome
collection

Thinking Through Things: object encounters in the medical humanities

ECR Training Day, Wednesday 12th February, 11am to 6pm
Wellcome Collection, 183 Euston Road, London, NW1 2BE

<http://nmmh.org.uk/thinking-through-things/>

Registration in the viewing room from 10.45am, for a prompt 11am start.

Programme:

11.00 to 11.15 introductions to each other, to Thinking Through Things, and to Wellcome Collection (Fiona Johnstone & Elma Brenner).

11.15 to 12.00 training in catalogue use with Danny Rees, Library Engagement Officer, Wellcome Collection.

12.00 to 13.00 Stefania Signorello, Conservator, will talk about object handling and conservation (both in terms of 'preservation' and 'discovery') in relation to the Audrey Amiss archive & other artists books (esp. recently acquired ones).

1 to 2pm lunch in Henry's.

2 to 3pm "Ask an archivist" with Alex Milne and Stephanie Cornwell, archivists at Wellcome Collection.

3 to 3.45pm workshop with Jen Grove, Engaged Research Fellow, University of Exeter, on working with objects from the Wellcome Collection as part of the youth engagement project <http://sexandhistory.exeter.ac.uk/>.

3.45 to 4.30pm tea and coffee in Henry's.

4.30 to 6.00pm: Group exercise (facilitated by the Thinking Through Things team) and final reflections on the day.